What's in a Name?

Look at the names in the article. Do you know any people with these names? What are they like?

Your name is very important. When you think of yourself, you probably think of your name first. It is an important part of your identity.

Right now, the two most popular names for babies in the United States are "Jacob" for boys and "Emma" for girls. Why are these names popular? And why are other names unpopular?

Names can become popular because of famous actors, TV or book characters, or athletes. Popular names suggest very positive things. Unpopular names suggest negative things. Surprisingly, people generally agree on the way they feel about names. Here are some common opinions about names from a recent survey.

Boys' names

- George: average, boring
- Jacob: creative, friendly
- Michael: good-looking, athletic
- Stanley: nerdy, serious

Girls' names

- Betty: old-fashioned, average
- Emma: independent, adventurous
- Jane: plain, ordinary
- Nicole: beautiful, intelligent

So why do parents give their children unpopular names? One reason is tradition. Many people are named after a family member. Of course, opinions can change over time. A name that is unpopular now may become popular in the future. That's good news for all the Georges and Bettys out there!

A Read the article. Then check (✓) the statements that are true.

- 1. Your name is part of your identity.
- 2. People often feel the same way about a particular name.
- 3. Boys' names are more popular than girls' names.
- 4. People are often named after family members.
- 5. Opinions about names can change.

Tools for Better Shopping

Scan the article. Find the names of popular websites. Do you use any of them for shopping?

1 Do you like to shop online? Like millions of people, you want to find the best things for the best price. There are so many choices that it can be difficult to find the things you need and want. Here's where technology comes in! Popular websites like Facebook and Twitter aren't just for social networking anymore.

2 The websites Facebook and Twitter are popular because people can connect to friends and get their most recent news. But people also use these sites as powerful shopping tools. Members can ask about an item and then get opinions from people they trust. Twitterers can also search for news from other users and then find stores nearby that sell the item.

3 Another helpful shopping tool is the smartphone. Smartphone users can go into a store, find an item they like, and then type the item number into their smartphone. They can compare prices, read reviews, and make better decisions about their purchase. Many people find a better price online or at another store. People often want to see and touch an item before they buy. They can do just that – and pay a lower price, too.

4 But you don't have to be a Facebook or Twitter member or have a smartphone to find a bargain. Websites like Shopzilla compare prices, give reviews, and find stores near you with the best bargains. Google does all these things but also lets you buy items directly through its site. Be a smart shopper. The information you need is at your fingertips!

A Read the article. Answer these questions. Then write the number of the paragraph where you find each answer.

- How are Shopzilla and Google similar?
- What are Twitter users called?
- How do smartphones help find bargains?
- What are two social networking sites?

Stay-at-Home Dads

Read the title of the article. Then check (✓) the question you think the interviews will answer. Why do men decide to stay at home with their children? What happens when both parents work?

Families in the U.S. are changing. One important change is that many fathers are staying home with their children. They take care of the kids, and their wives go to work. Modern Family magazine asked three stay-at-home dads the question "What's it like being a stay-at-home dad?"

William Chan

I'm having a great time! When the kids are in school, I do housework. Our youngest child goes to school part-time. When I pick her up, I love the one-on-one time with her. Then, when my two sons get home from school, we all play together. Why do I stay home? Well, I wasn't happy at my job. It was pretty stressful, in fact.

Daniel Evans

It's a challenge. We have two young children. They don't go to school yet. I never have time for myself! That's not easy. But my kids are growing up so fast. I really want to spend time with them when they're young. Also, my wife loves her job. I think most stay-at-home dads say the same thing. It's hard, but it's worth it.

Roberto Garcia

In my neighborhood, there aren't many dads in the park with their kids on weekdays. Nearly all of the parents are moms. I had a stressful job before and didn't have a lot of free time. I hated it. We have a daughter, and now I'm spending more time with her. I love that. I'm enjoying my freedom from work, but I'm also working very hard!

I arrived in China two weeks ago, but my trip is almost over! I'm with a group from the university. We stayed with families in Beijing for a week. We studied Mandarin every day, and I practiced a lot with my host family. Then my group took a trip to Xi'an. We saw the terracotta statues and learned about Chinese history. I'm tired, but I loved every minute of my trip.

The World in One Neighborhood

Scan the article. Then check (✓) the countries that are not mentioned.

- Brazil China Greece India Spain Sudan Uruguay Vietnam

1 The sidewalks are crowded with people chatting in Cantonese. An Indian man sells spices from his corner shop. Brazilian music plays loudly from a café. Is it China? India? Brazil? No, it's Kensington Market, a neighborhood in Toronto, Canada. Kensington Market was once an Eastern European and Italian neighborhood, but the area changed along with its residents. First came the Portuguese, then East Asians, then people from Iran, Vietnam, Sudan, Brazil, the Caribbean, and the Middle East.

2 Today, the neighborhood is truly multicultural—you can hear more than 100 languages on its streets. New residents bring many new traditions. “What’s really cool about Kensington is that as soon as you’re in it, you feel as though you’re not in Toronto anymore,” says one resident. “I think what makes Kensington Market unique is that it’s always changing,” says another.

3 It isn’t surprising that the area in and around Kensington Market is becoming a popular place to live. The rents are reasonable, the neighborhood is exciting, and it has good public transportation. There are apartments of every size and for every budget. It has inexpensive stores, fun cafés, fresh fruit and vegetable markets, and restaurants with almost every type of cuisine. As one resident says, “This place is the heart of Toronto.”

A Read the article. Then write the number of each paragraph next to its main idea.

- 1 The residents and their traditions make Kensington Market a multicultural neighborhood.
- 2 People from all over the world live in Kensington Market.

DEAR KEN AND PIXIE

Your style questions answered!

Look at the pictures. What is each an example of? Match the descriptions with the pictures. a. mixing old and new b. mixing baggy and slim c. mixing colors and patterns

All of your questions this week are about mixing and matching styles, patterns, and colors.

Dear Ken and Pixie,
I'm reading a lot about how to mix prints in the latest fashion magazines. But when I wear different prints together, I look silly. What's the trick?
- Mixed-up

Dear Mixed-up,
It's not difficult to wear different prints together. Find the similarity in each item of clothing you want to wear. Mix two or three items with the same background color, like white or another neutral color. Mix a large print with a small one. Mix similar patterns, like stripes with plaid. But if you don't feel comfortable in it, don't wear it!

Dear Ken and Pixie,
In college, I wore vintage clothes, but now I'm 30 and need a modern look. How can I wear vintage styles without looking outdated?
- Oldie but Goodie

Dear Oldie but Goodie,
Vintage clothing is always in! But mix it with something new for a modern look. Wear a vintage shirt with pants. Pair an old belt with a new bag. Wear vintage shoes with new jeans. But sometimes you need to alter the clothes. For example, take a baggy vintage skirt and make it slim, or cut the shoulder pads out of a vintage jacket.

Dear Ken and Pixie,
I'm seeing both baggy pants and skinny pants on the designer runways. Also, short pants and long pants. What's in style?
- Confused Carrie

Dear Confused Carrie,
It's all in style! For pants, anything goes this year. The trick is to wear something on top that is the opposite of the style of the pants. So, if you're wearing baggy pants, try a slim shirt. If slim pants are your thing, wear a baggy sweater. Short pants? Try funky shoes. Wear long pants with your shirt tucked in and a belt.

A Read the webpage. Find the words in italics in the text. Then match each word with its meaning.

- | | |
|--------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. neutral | a. not in style |
| 2. vintage | b. change |
| 3. outdated | c. slim |
| 4. alter | d. from the past but still in style |
| 5. baggy | e. without strong color |
| 6. skinny | f. loose fitting |

B PAIRWORK Answer these questions.

- Do you mix and match patterns and colors? What does your favorite outfit look like?
- Do you have any vintage clothing? What time period is it from?
- Do you wear clothes because they are fashionable or because they look good on you, or both?

TAKING THE RISK

Look at the pictures and skim the interviews. Then write the name of the sport below each picture.

Sports World magazine recently spoke with Josh Parker, Lisa Kim, and Alex Costas about risky sports.

SW: Wingsuit flying is a dangerous sport, Josh. What do you enjoy about it? And have you ever had an accident?

Josh: No, I've never been hurt. But, yes, it is dangerous, even for experienced flyers. I've been doing it for five years, but I still get a little nervous before I jump out of the plane. That's the most dangerous thing. Once, I jumped too fast, and I started to spin. That was scary! But it's amazing to be able to fly like a bird.

SW: Lisa, you've been kiteboarding for years now. What are some of the dangers?

Lisa: Oh, there are many dangers. When you're in the ocean, the conditions can be unpredictable. The wind can lift you up too fast and then drop you against something hard, like sand, or even water. You can also hit another surfer. But I like the challenge, and I like overcoming danger. That's why I do it.

SW: Alex, have you ever experienced any dangers while ice climbing?

Yes, absolutely. When you're high up on a mountain, the conditions are hard on the body. The air is thin, and it's very cold. I've seen some really dangerous storms. But the great thing about it is how you feel when you're done. Your body feels good, and you have a beautiful view of the snowy mountaintops.

A Read the interviews. Then complete the chart.

Scan the email messages. What city has a puppet show? What city has two personalities? What city is famous for leather?

Fez is so interesting! I've been to the medina (the old city) every day. It has walls all the way around it, and more than 9,000 streets! It's always crowded and noisy. My favorite places to visit are the small shops where people make local crafts. Fez is famous for its leather products. I visited a place where they dye the leather in dozens of beautiful colors.

I came at the perfect time, because the World Sacred Music festival is happening right now!

I've discovered that Cartagena has two different personalities. One is a lively city with fancy restaurants and crowded old plazas. And the other is a quiet and relaxing place with sandy beaches. If you come here, you should stay in the historic district – a walled area with great shopping, nightclubs, and restaurants. It has some wonderful old Spanish buildings.

Last night, I learned some salsa steps at a great dance club. Today, I went on a canoe tour of La Ciénaga mangrove forest.

Mike

Hanoi is the capital of Vietnam and its second-largest city. It's a fun city, but six days is not enough time for a visit. I'm staying near the Old Quarter of the city. It's a great place to meet people. Last night I went to a water puppet show. Tomorrow I'm going to Ha Long Bay.

I took a cooking class at the Vietnam Culinary School. I bought some fruits and vegetables at a local market and then prepared some local dishes. My food was really delicious! I'll cook you something when I get home.

Rain Forest Remedies?

Carol writes a column on health. Recently, she took a trip to Tortuguero National Park in Costa Rica.

What do you think the article is about?

1. Rodrigo Bonilla turns off the motor of the boat. We get off the boat and follow him along the path into the rain forest. Above us, a monkey with a baby hangs from a tree.
2. On this hot January day, Rodrigo is not looking for wild animals, but for medicinal plants—plants that can cure or treat illnesses. Medicinal plants grow in rain forests around the world.

A broom tree

3. Rodrigo is Costa Rican. He learned about jungle medicine from his grandmother. He shows us many different plants, such as the broom tree. He tells us that parts of the broom tree can help stop bleeding.
4. People have always used natural products as medicine. In fact, about 50 percent of Western medicines, such as aspirin, come from natural sources. And some animals eat certain kinds of plants when they are sick.
5. This is why medical researchers are so interested in plants. Many companies are now working with local governments and searching the rain forests for medicinal plants.
6. So far, the search has not produced any new medicines. But it's a good idea to keep looking. That's why we are now here in the Costa Rican rain forest.

Hand To Tip or Not to Tip?

Read the article. How much should you tip someone in the United States who carries your suitcase at a hotel? parks your car? serves you in a fast-food restaurant?

The word tip comes from an old English slang word that means “to give.” It’s both a noun and a verb. People in the U.S. usually tip people in places like restaurants, airports, hotels, and hair salons. People who work in these places often get paid low wages. A tip shows that the customer is pleased with the service.

Sometimes it’s hard to know how much to tip. The size of the tip usually depends on the service. People such as parking valets or bellhops usually get smaller tips. The tip for people such as taxi drivers and servers is usually larger. Here are a few guidelines for tipping in the United States:

Taxi drivers: 15 percent of the bill; more if they help you with bags

Servers: 15 to 20 percent of the bill (There is no tipping in fast-food restaurants.)

Barbers or hairstylists: 15 percent of the bill

Airport porters or hotel bellhops: $1 or $2 for carrying each suitcase

Hotel door attendants: $1 or $2 for getting a taxi

Parking valets: $2 for parking a car

Hotel maids: $2 to $5 per night

When you’re not sure about how much to tip, do what feels right. You don’t have to tip for bad service. And you can give a bigger tip for very good service. Remember, though, your behavior is more important than your money. Always treat service providers with respect.

Things You Can Do to Help the Environment

Look at the pictures. Which show environmental problems? Which show solutions?

CARS

Cars are getting bigger. SUVs—large, truck-like vehicles—are now the most popular cars in the United States. Bigger vehicles burn more gas and increase air pollution. So try to walk, bicycle, or use public transportation. If you drive a car, keep it tuned up. This saves gas and reduces pollution.

ENERGY

The biggest use of home energy is for heating and cooling. So turn up your air conditioner and turn down the heat, especially at night. Replace regular lightbulbs with bulbs that use less energy. And remember to turn lights off.

PRODUCTS

Each American throws away about 1.8 kilograms (4 pounds) of garbage every day. Most of it goes into landfills. Reduce waste before you buy by asking yourself: Do I need this? Is it something I can only use once? Buy products that you can use over and over again. And try to buy products made from recycled materials.

WATER

Showers use a lot of water. In one week, a typical American family uses as much water as a person drinks in three years! Buy a special "low-flow" showerhead or take shorter showers. This can cut water use in half. Also, fix any leaky faucets.

A Read the article. Where do you think it is from? Check (✓) the correct answer.

1. Stephanie always takes long showers in the morning.
2. In the winter, Ralph keeps the heat turned up all day.
3. Matt buys a newspaper every day, but never reads it.

Cell Phone Etiquette

Scan the article. Is it OK to use a cell phone in a movie theater? in a restaurant? on the street?

What do these things have in common: a stranger's personal problems, details about a business meeting, the food in someone's refrigerator, someone's medical issues, and a private argument? These are all things you hear about when the people around you don't practice good cell phone etiquette!

Most people find cell phones a necessity in their day-to-day lives. But we've all sat next to someone talking too loudly, listening to loud music, or playing a loud beeping game on a cell phone. But a recent report shows that while most people are annoyed by cell phone rudeness, most admit to doing it, too. What can you do to practice better etiquette? Here are a few rules:

> Off means off! Respect the rules of restaurants and other public places. If a sign says "No cell phones," don't use your phone – for anything.

> Keep private conversations private! Speak softly and for a short time. Observe the 3-meter (10-foot) rule – stay away from other people.

> Lights off, phone off! Never take calls or send text messages in a theater, at the movies, or at a performance. Turn your phone or your ringer off.

> Pay attention! Talking or texting while driving is dangerous. Listening to music with headphones while driving is dangerous. Crossing the street while playing a game or checking your email is dangerous. You get the picture.

Cell phones have become mini-computers that people depend on 24 hours a day. But don't let yours become a nuisance – or a danger – to others! Next time you're getting ready to use yours, stop and consider the people around you.

A Read the article. Then complete the summary with information from the article.

Many people don't practice good cell phone _____ . They talk too _____, listen to _____ music, or check their email while _____ the street. To be a better cell phone user, follow a few simple rules. For example: Turn _____ your phone in public places that don't allow cell phones; speak _____ on phone calls; and don't talk, text, play games, or listen to music while _____ or crossing the street.

B Check (✓) the statements the writer would probably agree with.

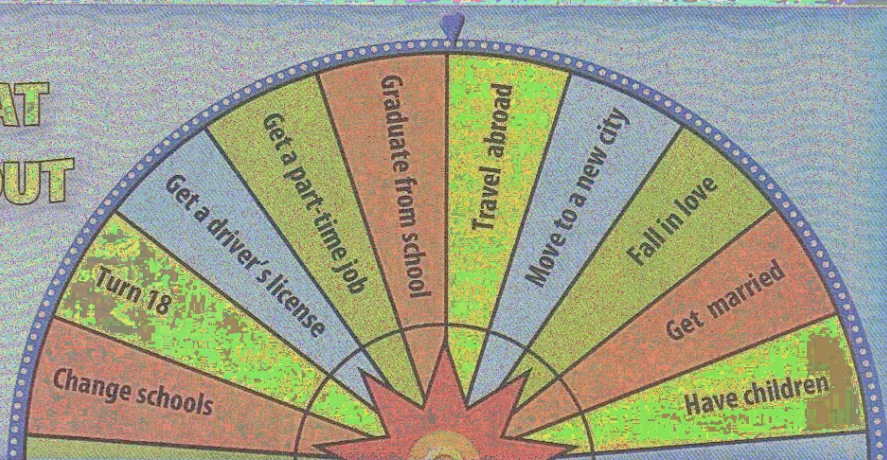

- 1. You should never use a cell phone in public.
- 2. Cell phone users are very rude people.
- 3. Turn off your cell phone if someone asks you to.
- 4. You can talk loudly if you're more than 3 meters away from someone.
- 5. It's OK to send text messages while driving a car.
- 6. You can use a cell phone at a dance performance if you speak quietly.
- 7. Don't play games on your phone in restaurants.
- 8. Don't check your email while crossing the street.

Goal Setting

Setting Personal Goals

Look at the list in the article. Which of these areas of your life would you like to change or improve?

Ask any top athlete or successful businessperson and they will tell you the importance of setting goals. Goal setting can motivate you and give your life direction. It seems easy, right? Just write down a list of things you want to achieve and then do them. Well, it's not that easy!

Effective goal setting happens on several levels. First, you create a big picture of what you want to do with your life. At this point, you decide what large-scale goals you want to achieve. Second, you divide these into smaller and smaller tasks. Third, you put the smaller tasks into a rough time line. Finally, once you have your plan, you start working to achieve it.

How do you know what your large-scale goals are? These questions can help you get started.

Career

What level do you want to reach in your career?

Creative

Do you want to achieve any artistic goals?

PROCESS

Write down your goals and think about them carefully. Are they realistic?

Family

What kind of relationship do you want with the people in your family?

Physical

How will you stay in good physical shape throughout your life?

How important are they? Rank them in order from most important to least important.

Community Service

How do you want to give back to your community?

Education

What do you want to learn? How will you learn it?

Then follow the process above to make your long-term plan. Remember, your goals can change with time.

Financial

How much money do you want to earn? How much do you want to save?

Recreation

How do you want to enjoy yourself?

Look at them regularly and adjust them if necessary. And be sure your goals are things you hope to achieve, not things others want.

A Read the article. Who do you think the article was written for?

Check (✓) the correct answer.

People who...

have very clear goals

are looking for direction

don't care about their future

B Answer these questions.

1. What kinds of people set personal goals?

2. Why do people set personal goals?

3. Why should you divide your goals into steps?

B: Well, I plan to stay here in the city for a few months.

A: Really? I want to go home. I'm ready for my mom's cooking.

B: I understand that, but my boss says I can keep my job for the summer. So I want to work a lot of hours because I hope to make enough money for a new car.

A: But you don't need a car in the city.

B: I don't plan to be here for very long. In the fall, I'm going to drive across the country. I really want to live in California.

A: California? Where in California would you like to live?

B: In Hollywood, of course. I'm going to be a movie star!
